

COURSE OF LOVE OF THE PATRIARCHATE OF ALEXANDRIA TO THE ORPHANS OF THE TOWN OF DOLISIE

On the morning of 2nd November 2012 His Beatitude Theodoros II, Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa went to the Holy Church of St. Irene in the town of Dolisie in Congo-Brazzaville.

Following the Doxology prayers His Beatitude visited the adjacent school which is excellently organized according to European standards; he then attended the school festivities.

After a brief visit to the Holy Monastery of St. John the Theologian which is under construction, His Beatitude met with the orphan children of the town of Dolisie, gave them gifts and blessings and ate with them, so completing his lengthy pastoral and missionary journey to the Ecclesial Provinces of Central Africa.
