The Finnish President showed particular interest on the position of the Patriarchate on inter-Christian and inter-Faith issues in Africa, as well as in the experiences of the Patriarchate from its recent period of full social and political events in Egypt. In conclusion, His Beatitude awarded the Finnish President the Great Cross of the Order of the Lion of the Patriarchate of Alexandria, wanting in this way to honour in his person all those Finns, clergy and laity, who over the years have worked for the missionary struggle of the Patriarchate. The two Primates, together with their entourages drove over a large part of the verdant and lake-studded parts of Finland and late that night arrived at the Holy Monastery of the Transfiguration of the Saviour New Valamo, where His Beatitude was welcomed by the entire monastic Brotherhood.
