At the time of its establishment, the Holy Diocese had 3 Parish Communities in the large urban centers of its jurisdiction, St Nicholas in the city of Bunia, the Annunciation of the Theotokos in Kisangani and St Dimitrios in the city of Isiro, with the corresponding Holy Churches, which were built by Greeks who lived there.

Today, one more Holy Church has been erected, that of Saint Anna – Saint Catherine in Kisangani, one is under construction at Lake Albert in Bunia, while two more Parish Communities have been established, yet lack places of worship. The aforementioned Parish Churches are served by an equal number of native clergy.
