

HIS BEATITUDE VISITS THE GREEK SCHOOLS OF ALEXANDRIA

On 16th April 2008, His Beatitude Theodoros II, Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa visited the Greek Schools of Alexandria.

In the presence of the Headmasters and the teaching staff of all the schools of the Great City, His Beatitude spoke to the pupils about the spiritual treasure of knowledge as well as about the suffering children of Africa and the efforts being made by the Church of Alexandria for their education. He gave them all small handmade gifts from the countries of Africa.
