To
His Holiness
The Patriarch of the Ethiopian Church
Abuna Mathias
Addis Ababa

Your Holiness,

Having been informed of the execution of the 30 Ethiopian Christians by lawless hands in Libya, we hasten to express to you and to the fullness of your Church our sincere condolences and our unreserved support.

Our Holy Church stands in pain by the side of the Ethiopian people, renouncing these terrorist actions, which are the result of the fanatical morbid intolerance of differences and of an ideology of religious exclusiveness which leads to dangerous and violent paths.

Praying that the Most Merciful Lord who is Risen from the dead will enlighten humanity to obtain the peace and love which comes from Him and that He will grant rest to our 30 murdered brothers in His blessedness, we remain with heartfelt prayers

Your beloved brother in Christ,

THEODOROS II

Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa
