

PATRIARCH THEODOROS ' SATISFACTION FOR THE STRENGTHENING OF GREECE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH AFRICAN COUNTRIES

Patriarch Theodoros of Alexandria, expressed his satisfaction for the strengthening of the diplomatic relations promoted by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Nikos Dendias, with African countries.

Welcoming the Deputy Minister of National Defense, Nikos Hardalias, and in the presence of the Ambassador of Greece to Egypt, Nikos Garilidis, the Primate of the Orthodox Church of Africa expressed his joy because recently, the head of Greek diplomacy, Mr. Dendias, visited Ghana and Rwanda, strengthening diplomatic relations with African countries.

"I thank the Greek State for listening to my sighs and already looking at the continent of the future that is Africa," said Patriarch Theodoros.