

Protocol of Cooperation between the Cyprus University of Technology and the Patriarchate of Alexandria

Protocol of Cooperation between the Cyprus University of Technology and the Patriarchate of Alexandria, with the support of the Municipality of Limassol, was signed on November 11, 2019.

The Protocol of Cooperation was signed by His Beatitude Theodoros II, Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, the Rector of the University Mr. Andreas Anagiotou and the Mayor of Limassol Mr. Nikolaos Nikolaidis.

It should be noted that the protocol of cooperation concerns issues of education and scientific research between the two parties. The centerpiece of the collaboration is the digitization of the Patriarchate's historical archive, as well as support from the Language Center to boards of the Theological School.

Last but not least, there will be joint cultural, scientific, educational and various other activities.
