Brief history of the life of the Hieromartyr St Theodoros
Bishop of Cyrene.

Saint Theodoros lived during the reign of King Diocletian (284 – 304 AD) and came from Cyrene in Libya. He was a copyist of holy books, which he distributed to the churches for the enlightenment of the faithful.

Then he was invited by the ruler and Theodore appeared before him, accompanied by many Christians, among whom were Saints Kyprilla, Aroa and Lucia.

The ruler asked him to hand over his books and deny Christ, but Theodore did not obey the ruler's order and thus suffered severe torture. At first they scourged him mercilessly, then crucified him, and then scraped his wounds with skins. Then after cutting out his tongue, they threw him in prison where he breathed his last.
