

THRONAL FEAST AT THE PHANAR – BRILLIANT CONCELEBRATION BETWEEN THE ECUMENICAL PATRIARCH AND THE PATRIARCH OF ALEXANDRIA

The Great and Holy Church of Christ, with majesty and according to custom, honoured the sacred memory of its founder and Patron Saint the glorious Saint Apostle Andrew the First-called, by celebrating its Thronal Feast.

On Saturday 30th November, His Most Holiness Bartholomaios the Ecumenical Patriarch, con-celebrated the Patriarchal and Synodal Divine Liturgy in the Patriarchal Church, together with His Beatitude Theodoros II, Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, and Their Eminences the Hierarchs of Crete Irenaios, Makarios of Aneios, Basileios of Konstantias and Ammohostos, Theodoritos of Laodecia, George of Guinea, Athenagoras of Belgium, Damaskinos of Cydonia and Apokoronou, Nathaniel of Kos and Nisyros, Dionysios of Zakynthos, Athenagoras of Cydonia, Myron of New Zealand and Efstratios of Tserniyev and Nizhna, with the presence of the official representation of the Church of Rome, during which he also performed the ordination to the Diaconate, Erudite Mr. Basil Gregoriades, a graduate from the Boston Holy Cross Theological Academy, renaming him Barnabas, addressing the new member of the Clergy of the Patriarchal Court paternally, and wishing him faith and a conscientious faithful ministry in the courts of the Mother Church.